- Rich, thanks again for all you do for the class... 10/31/2018 4:44 AM
- The bank account would be helpful but would also require work and expense to manage. Is there a credit union in the Fox Valley? Or a local bank with good rates? 10/30/2018 3:33 PM

A: While it's true that any bank account requires time and energy – work – accounts are available that do not require any expense. Yes, there is a credit union in Geneva and I plan to check it out. Options are available at numerous banks with no monthly fees. Copies of statements can be sent to each and every one of you using the same email process I use for this newsletter. I want transparency and to keep you always in the loop.

- I would like to know the results of this survey. I would like to know how the organizers felt about all their volunteer efforts. Did any have to spend their own money in their efforts? If not, how much money is now in an account awaiting the next reunion? I would like to have a current detailed list of contact information for all the 1968 graduates of GCHS including addresses, email name, Facebook account name, phone numbers, etc. Is this information available anywhere already? 10/30/2018 11:48 AM

A: Survey results are listed above; a link to the above survey is also included in the newsletter. I cannot speak for the organizers in terms of how they felt about their efforts; it would be best to ask them personally about that, as well as about what they spent individually and if/how they were reimbursed. My contributions were a donation; I did not ask for reimbursement. I am waiting to hear if additional funds remain. If they do, I have requested them be sent to me. As former Treasurer of the class of 1968, I would place them in an account in a local bank for safe-keeping, keeping you all informed on a regular basis as to their status. I am currently working on an "address book" that will contain most if not all the information you mentioned. It will take some time to compile but stay tuned to this newsletter.

- Thank you Rich! 10/30/2018 9:51 AM

- Holly took pictures and was going to send them to everyone....i appreciate that she did that...can't wait to see them. 10/30/2018 9:37 AM

A: I hope you've had a chance to see them; if you haven't, here's a direct link to Shutterfly: <https://ghsclassof68.shutterfly.com/>

- The final was too "open ended" to really give a good answer, so I just said "no." If it were more specific, I may have said "yes." 10/30/2018 8:41 AM

A: See newsletter, as well as my answer to the comment directly above.

- Loved the coffee on the river despite the chill. The time of year was perfect. I wouldnt vome back yeay but Id come more iften if there werr mire events. A bank account seems unnecessary, I trust anyone if you to keep track if donations. Lets just always keep it simple. Big thank you to all who made that great weekend happen. 10/30/2018 8:07 AM

- Rich Let me know if I can do anything. 10/30/2018 7:33 AM

A: Thanks for the offer – I'll definitely let you know.

- Thank you for the hard work you did and are about to do. Good questions for the survey. 10/30/2018 7:25 AM
